The 54 Day Novena for Vocations January 31st - March 24th

The Diocese of Rockville Center will be praying a 54 Day Rosary Novena for vocations to the priesthood beginning on January 31st. This novena will be offered privately through the recitation of the Holy Rosary and therefore will be under the deep prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Even praying a decade of the Rosary each day would be sufficient in praying the novena.

The first 27 days of the novena (Jan 31st - Feb 26th) is to pray for vocations. The last 27 days (Feb 27th - March 24th) is in Thanksgiving for the vocations that have been embraced.

As you know, the Church is always in need of vocations to the priesthood. The most important thing we can do to foster vocations is to pray for them. Every vocation is a gift from God given to a soul who embraces it. Even in God’s great plan, our prayers do matter for those who have a vocation. In fact, I believe that there is at least one person who is reading this letter who actually has a vocation to the priesthood.

My own pastor Monsignor James McDonald prayed for one of his spiritual sons, Henry Leuthardt to embrace his vocation to the priesthood. Monsignor McDonald not only offered a lot of prayers for him but he was firm and gentle in encouraging him in his vocation. After 20 years, Father Henry Leuthardt was finally ordained a priest.

It is in the tradition of the Church to pray for vocations. That is where God is encountered - through prayer. From Carthusians to Jesuits, religious communities have always prayed for vocations. It is our wonderful duty as a diocese and as a local parish to pray for vocations and to encourage those who are discerning a call to the priesthood.

Not long ago, Father Sean Magaldi was telling me how he believes that Saint John Henry Newman prayed for him in his vocation to the priesthood while he was a student at Adelphi, when he was part of the Newman Club.

Looking back on it, I owe some part of my vocation to the prayers of Saint Joseph of Cupertino who is the patron saint of pilots. The last thing that I did before entering the seminary was take flying lessons.

My own sponsor for confirmation told me that every Holy Communion that he receives he offers it for me. Such prayers are powerful and precious in God’s eyes.

The greatest obstacle that prevents men from embracing their call in being priests - is fear. Given what the Church has suffered in these recent years and how immensely secular the world has become, to be afraid is understandable.

However, the grace that comes from a priest - and especially a holy priest, is immeasurable to anything else other than Christ himself. St. Ignatius Martyr said the priesthood is the most sublime of all created dignities. If one who is called could only see the light, the grace that comes from the priesthood, and trusts in God, he would not be afraid.

So let us pray this bold and zealous 54 novena for vocations. Lord send us priests. Lord send us holy priests.

In Jesus and Mary,

Our Lady of Guadalupe Intercessor of the Unborn

To help stop the anti-life push in the world, the late Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen encouraged the spiritual adoption of an unborn child. This is done by praying that one particular but unknown child’s life be spared abortion and be allowed to continue to live.

To help accomplish this, it was recommended, an individual say the following daily prayer for a period of one year.

“Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.”

During your earthly life this spiritually adopted child of yours will be known only to God but in the world to come it is hoped that you will meet the child whose life was spared by your prayers and spend eternal happiness with them.

Pray for Vocations

This week please keep our Bishops, Priests and Seminarians in your prayers.

Mary, Mother of Jesus, throw your mantel of purity over our priests. Protect them, guide them, and keep them in your heart. Be a Mother to them, especially in times of discouragement and loneliness. Love them and keep them belonging completely to Jesus. Like Jesus, they, too, are your sons, so keep their hearts pure and virginal. Keep their minds filled with Jesus, and put Jesus always on their lips, so that He is the one they offer to sinners and to all they meet. Mary, Mother of Jesus, be their Mother, loving them and bringing them joy. Take special care of sick and dying priests, and the ones most tempted. Remember how they spent their youth and old age, their entire lives serving and giving all to Jesus. Mary, bless them and keep a special place for them in your heart. Give them a piece of your heart, so beautiful and pure and immaculate, so full of love and humility, so that they, too, can grow in the likeness of Christ. Dear Mary, make them humble like you, and holy like Jesus. Amen.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul
In this Sunday’s Gospel, we find Jesus “went around all of Galilee, teaching in the synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness among the people.” The people of Galilee and beyond, far beyond, would no longer walk in darkness. But many people still walk in darkness. Many people choose to walk in darkness. There are many who do not want to know the truth. They would rather stay in the dark. Those who have been called by Christ to be His disciples, all of us, have to have the courage to bring the light of His Truth to those who choose darkness. We need to let people know about Jesus Christ. WE need to let them know that He loves them. WE have been called so we can use our own unique talents to bring others to Christ. WE need to complete the mission we have been given to engage others and lead them to join us in the journey of the Kingdom of God. Whatever our gifts are, we must use them for the Lord. We must bring light to those in darkness. Supporting St. Vincent de Paul shows that you are a sign of God’s Spirit of love to those who are suffering. Please keep the poor and needy in our parish in your prayers. Thank you.

Focus on Religious Freedom
President Trump Safeguards the Right to Religious Freedom in Public Schools - “We don’t worship government - we worship God.” - President Trump, 2020

On January 16th, National Religious Freedom Day, President Trump said. “This afternoon, we’re proudly announcing historic steps to protect the First Amendment right to pray in public schools...it is a sacred principle of our Republic that government must never stand between the people and God. Yet, in public schools around the country, authorities are stopping students and teachers from praying, sharing their faith, or following their religious beliefs...Tragically, there is a growing...impulse...that seeks to punish, restrict, and even prohibit religious expression.”

For seven years, Catholics for Freedom of Religion has been reporting instances of students denied their right to religious expression in their schools. The Trump administration has updated the guidelines, first issued under President Clinton, and is sending them to every school that receives federal funds. The Guidance on Constitutionally Protected Prayer and Religious Expression in Public Elementary and Secondary Schools can be read on the United States Department of Education website at www.ed.gov.

“These actions by the president should prompt discussions among parents, clergy and educators that will end the too common suppression of students’ appropriate expressions of their faith,” said Barbara Samuells, President of Catholics for Freedom of Religion.

To monitor compliance with the guidelines, every public school will continue to certify to their state that they have no policy that conflicts with students’ religious freedom rights. As before, a public school’s federal funding could be suspended if the school is not in compliance.

“The Constitution was never meant to prevent people from praying; its declared purpose was to protect their freedom to pray.” - President Ronald Reagan
The Men of the Way of Light

It is here at Capernum, on the shores of Galilee, that Jesus begins His ministry. The region, rich in natural resources and situated at the center of trade routes had a mixed population living in amity with about only one third being Jewish. That is why Isaiah refers to this region as “Galilee of the Gentiles.” Yet, this was the region that was the first to receive the light of salvation and hear the preaching of the Messiah in fulfillment of the prophesies.

With the Kingdom of God so close at hand, Jesus’ preaching is for an urgent call to repentance. St. Pope John Paul tells us, “Penance means changing one’s life in harmony with a change of heart. Penance brings forth worthy fruits as one’s whole existence is directed toward a continuous striving for what is better.” In the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we heed Jesus’ call, and once released from the burden of our sins, can yield abundant fruits! Are we yielding great fruit? Are we pursuing what is better?

As Jesus begins to establish His Kingdom, we see Him calling His first disciples to follow Him and leave everything behind. Jesus chooses fishermen, uneducated men, lest anyone think that the “faith of believers be attributed not to the action of God, but to eloquence and scholarship.” (St. Jerome) It is not we who are “great”. It is God acting through us that accomplishes great things.

The Father proclaims in Ephesians that He has united all humanity, Jews and Gentiles, “in one body through the cross...thus making peace.” Yet, as seen in our Second Reading, we often drive wedges of division into that unity by exalting some unique and distinctive, in a spirit of hostility toward others who disagree with us, thus obscuring THE light. Jesus, the Light of the World, is still ready to transform the darkness of our disunity; if we are ready to share the One Thing we have in common, Jesus Himself. This is what Pope John Paul II stressed in Be Not Afraid, “The very realization that in spite of everything, what unites us is stronger than what divides us and deeper than what separates us, it obliges us to look deeper.” Unfortunately, we can know the truth that “the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light,” and still not experience the Light’s warmth and beauty. Christ came to shatter the darkness, and He did. Yet in our humanity, we often harbor little areas of darkness where we have not allowed His Light to penetrate. May Jesus, our Light, reveal those areas where He desires to shine and eliminate darkness.

Secondly, may we see ourselves as light-bearers reflecting His grace, warmth, and oneness to those around us who are still sitting in darkness. (Condensed from the Emmaus Journey Reflections)

Looking for ways to shine your light? Join us at our next meeting on Saturday, February 8th, immediately following the 8:00 AM Mass. We meet in the Nazareth Room of the Holy Family Chapel. Bagels and coffee served. Our meetings run until 10:30 AM. For more information, visit our FaceBook page.

Jesus called some people to follow Him.

Match the shapes.
Some think the gospel message is foolish. Others believe it and are saved.

Starting at the arrow, follow the path through the cross. Draw lines between the letters to make words so you can read the message. You will use all the letters.

The Corinthians were arguing over which leader they should follow.

Paul wanted the Corinthians simply to trust the gospel of Christ, not to become sidetracked by different ideas.

Paul begged the Corinthian Christians to do something important. What was it?

Use the code to find different leaders the Corinthians were following.

Place the correct letters inside the shapes to find what Paul said.
