Welcome Back

Masses have finally returned for the faithful! It has been a tremendously long absence. It is truly historical as well. I believe it has been since the Roman Empire that Masses were not offered publicly in Western Europe and also for the first time in our country. Thankfully, this has passed, and we pray that a resurgence will not come back. How appropriate for Masses to resume on the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi).

It is going to be quite different to return back to Mass. If you had the chance to come to Mass this past weekend you may have noticed some changes. Everyone is required to wear face masks. Communion is now given at the end of Mass. Envelopes are now to be dropped in the baskets by the doors of the Church at the end of Mass. So, it is going to be different for at least a while. Yet even though the Mass may look a little different, the sacrifice and the grace is the same. It is the same Christ, and His one everlasting sacrifice that is offered at Mass. Jesus Christ gives His life for us, so we can enter into communion with Him.

There will be a gradual reopening of the parish. The rectory is currently open and the hours will slowly be extended. Parish events and ministries will slowly return.

I hope you and all of our loved ones are safe and healthy. I am sure we know at least someone who has been infected. Sadly, as you know, parishioners have also lost loved ones. It is our great hope that they are among the blessed in Heaven.

Last Sunday was one of the most uplifting Sundays I’ve had in a long time. It felt great for Sunday to feel like Sunday. To see the people of God returning to Mass is a sign of great hope for our parish.

I also welcome Seminarian Nicholas Waldron who will be serving the parish for the summer. He is a wonderful young man who is filled with zeal for souls and has so much to give to the Church as a future priest.

In Jesus and Mary,

Father Jeff Gilliam

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

Religious Freedom Week -
June 22nd to June 29th

Beginning June 22nd, the Feasts of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) celebrates religious freedom and urges Catholics to pray, reflect and take action on religious liberty. In response to the call from the USCCB, please join Catholics for Freedom of Religion (CFFOR) in praying to Mary Immaculate, Patroness of America, for the healing of our Nation and full restoration of religious freedom. The Rosary for America which dedicates each bead to one of our 50 states, will be recited in public prayer outside several churches during Religious Freedom Week. In the Secret of the Rosary, Saint Louis de Montfort states: “Public prayer is far more powerful than private prayer to appease the anger of God and call down His mercy.” The text of the Rosary for America can be printed from the home page of www.CFFOR.org and is used by many individuals, ministries and churches as ongoing prayer for our Nation.

Please spend time in prayer for the healing of our Nation.

A Father's Day Prayer

God,
Bless all the fathers in the world. Father, we ask that You guide them to be good role models and loving to their children. We also ask that You help them to be a father like You are. Give them grace and patience to handle situations in a loving way.

Amen
