For the People of Our Parish
Congratulations and Blessings to Father Cody Bobick.

May Christ bless you abundantly in your priestly Ministry.
This is my last bulletin, so I thank you for trying to figure out ‘What’s Pastor Thinking’ over the last four years. Thank you for allowing me to call St. Barnabas my home - I loved being with you. I also loved being with the priests who served here, and with the priests in our neighboring parishes. I regard their friendship as one of the great graces of my time here. As you know, those of us who live priesthood are no better or no worse than others, but we are privileged to minister to you, in good times and bad. People look to us, as if qualities and values like truth and right living and holiness come automatically, as if the frailties of the human condition are not applicable to those who happen to be priests. No, we stand humbly before our God as you do. But we stand together with you, and that’s why there are so many people I need to thank for supporting me in this short time as your Pastor. I don’t intend to get involved in listing names, for obvious reasons, but on this feast of Corpus Christi I especially thank all who attend Mass regularly. Thank you for being here, weekend after weekend. Thanks to the weekday congregation for their loyalty and faithfulness to their morning Mass. Your faith helped to support me in my faith and my priesthood, and I appreciate that very much. A special word of thanks to our rectory neighbors – the children, families and staff of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton School, and the Sisters of St. Barnabas Convent. As Pastor I depend on a great parish staff & lots of volunteers to make the parish work — thanks to all of you in offices and in ministry, and to the Knights of Columbus for helping me move boxes to St. Aidan’s. I hope, too, that I am sensible enough to realize that not everyone may be happy with what I’ve done, or how I’ve done it, what I’ve said or how I said it. For any time when people’s expectations of me as a priest have not been realized, I ask forgiveness. Finally, I am happy that so many have wished me well in my new work as Pastor of St. Aidan’s. I have no doubt that as I look back on these years in St. Barnabas, I will think fondly of you, and it would be dishonest of me not to say that I hope too that you will think fondly of me. All my best to Fr. Jeff, the twelfth pastor of St. Barnabas. May God bless you and all those you love.

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, Corpus Christi, is a major solemnity in our liturgical calendar. Historically, the Solemnity is marked with processions in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. This year on the Solemnity we will have an outdoor procession of the Blessed Sacrament and Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in the church following the procession. It is a parish wide celebration. As Catholic Christians our spirituality is centered around the Eucharist. We are a Eucharistic people. Therefore, we are inviting the entire parish to become involved in this event. All are invited to come to the noon Mass on June 23rd, the day of the celebration and participate in the procession following the Mass. There will be two outdoor altars set up. One will be in front of the convent front door and the second will be set up in front of the statue of the Blessed Mother shrine on Bedford Avenue south of the church. 2nd Graders are invited to dress in their communion outfits and have a place of honor in the procession. Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist are especially encouraged to participate as the Eucharist is at the heart of their ministry. Altar Servers are invited to a place of honor in the procession. Everyone is asked to bring flowers from their gardens in vases to decorate the outdoor altars upon which the Blessed Sacrament will be placed for adoration. The flowers should arrive prior to the start of the noon Mass. The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ provides Catholics with a wonderful way to witness publically to our faith. Mark your calendar for this special event. The Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will conclude at 3:00 PM with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul
Today, as we celebrate the gift of the Body and Blood of Christ we hear Jesus ask His disciples, “Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?” And He shows them how, by the multiplication of the five loaves and fishes. There is perhaps no more heart-wrenching sight than the malnourished and starving. These sights demand a response from us. We know there is food in abundance. We know we are a nation that generally overeats. We know that often the world hunger problem is tied into politics. We know all these facts. And so when we celebrate this particular feast and hear these readings, we are once more prodded to respond. Jesus is Lord of every situation, and so He uses the lunch of a little boy to feed a great multitude of people. He does the same today. No matter what evil people do, no matter how depressed we may sometimes feel about the future of this world, Jesus Christ, as we say so often in our prayers, ‘Lives and Reigns Forever and Ever.’” So with the prayer of St. Ignatius we ask Jesus to teach us to be generous. Teach us to give and not to count the cost...to look for no reward except knowing that we are doing the Lord’s will. Today, as we continue to support St. Vincent de Paul, know that the multiplication of the loaves and fishes will happen again and the hungry will be fed.

The Men of the Way of Light
Today, we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi - The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Jesus promises, “I am with you always, even until the end of the age.” (Mt 28:20) He says “I” am with you always, not just My spirit or My word. He is truly and physically present in the Eucharist! The teaching about the Eucharist passed on by Paul shows the importance of Apostolic Tradition. (1 Cor 11:23-26) He confirms the fact that Jesus’ presence in the Eucharist is real when he warns in the next line, “Whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of profaning the Body and Blood of the Lord.”

Are we aware of the transforming power that the Eucharist can have on our lives? Recently, Pope Francis said, “Every time we take Communion, we resemble Jesus more...increasingly being transformed in Jesus and stripping away one’s selfishness by uniting oneself closer with Christ.”

Are you ready to be transformed? Please join our faith discussion group at our next meeting on Saturday, June 29th, immediately following the 8:00 AM Mass. We meet in the Nazareth Room of the Holy Family Chapel. Bagels and coffee served. Our meetings run until 10:30 AM. For more information, visit our FaceBook page.

Focus on Religious Freedom

Religious Freedom Week 2019: Strength in Hope. Join us from June 22nd, the Feast of Religious Freedom Martyrs, Saints Thomas More and John Fisher - to June 29th, the Solemnity of martyrs, Saints Peter and Paul, as Americans are encouraged to Pray, Reflect, and Take Action on religious liberty, both here in this country and abroad. The theme, Strength in Hope, is taken from Romans 8:18: Among the trials of this life, find strength in hope, convinced that, “the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come that will be revealed to us.”

Archbishop William Lori wrote, “Religious freedom is not a ‘carve-out’ granted by the state. It’s an inalienable right.” “In the West, we are complacent about the threats to religious freedom. Many people don’t even perceive them; they happen in courtrooms, board rooms, legislatures and government agencies. In other parts of the world it’s bloody, violent, overt, but in both cases, it’s denial of the rights of conscience. In the middle East and elsewhere in the world, we see what societies without religious freedom look like. We see that once religious freedom disappears, human dignity suffers and communities disintegrate.” “Without religious freedom, a merciless society emerges from the shadows.” - Archbishop William Lori

By the power of the Holy Spirit, Christ is present in the proclamation of God's Word, in the Eucharistic assembly, in the person of the priest, but above all and in a wholly unique manner in the Eucharist. "This presence is called 'real'—by which is not intended to exclude the other types of presence as if they could not be 'real' too, but because it is presence in the fullest sense: that is to say, it is a substantial presence by which Christ, God and man, makes himself wholly and entirely present." (CCC, no. 1374, citing Pope Paul VI, Mystery of Faith, no. 39).

Since the Middle Ages, the change of bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ has been called "transubstantiation." This means that the substance of the bread and wine is changed into the substance of the Body and Blood of Christ. The appearances of bread and wine remain (color, shape, weight, chemical composition), but the underlying reality—that is, the substance—is now the Body and Blood of Christ.

The Real Presence of Jesus Christ endures in the consecrated elements even after the Mass is ended. Once Communion has been distributed, any remaining hosts are placed in the tabernacle. If any of the Precious Blood remains, it is reverently consumed. The hosts are reserved to provide Communion for the sick, Viaticum (Communion for the dying), and to allow the faithful to worship Christ in the reserved Sacrament and to pray in his presence. As a sign of adoration, Latin Catholics genuflect to the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the tabernacle or genuflect or kneel when the Blessed Sacrament is exposed for prayer. Eastern Catholics show their reverence by a profound bow rather than a genuflection: "It is for this reason the tabernacle should be located in an especially worthy place in the Church and should be constructed in such a way that it emphasizes and manifests the truth of the real presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament." (CCC, no. 1379).

With the passage of time, reverent reflection led the Church to enrich its Eucharistic devotion. Faith that Jesus is truly present in the Sacrament led believers to worship Christ dwelling with us permanently in the Sacrament. Wherever the Sacrament is, there is Christ, who is our Lord and our God. Such worship is expressed in many ways: in genuflection, in adoration of the Eucharist, and in the many forms of Eucharistic devotion that faith has nourished.

The Eucharistic Liturgy contains the entire treasure of the Church since it makes present the Paschal Mystery, the central event of salvation. Eucharistic adoration and devotion flow from and lead to the Eucharistic Liturgy, the Mass.

Anima Christi
Soul of Christ, be my sanctification. Body of Christ, be my salvation. Blood of Christ, fill all my veins. Water of Christ’s side, wash out my stains. Passion of Christ, my comfort be. O good Jesu, listen to me. In Thy wounds I fain would hide, Ne’er to be parted from Thy side, Guard me, should the foe assail me. Call me when my life shall fail me. Bid me come to Thee above, With Thy saints to sing Thy love, World without end. Amen.

They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up 12 baskets full of broken pieces that were left over.

Find 12 fish hidden in the picture.
