Important Updates

Given all that is going on in this intense year of 2020, it is deeply important for us to be united as the Body of Christ. As a local Church, we will be making more efforts to stay united in prayer and fellowship during this pandemic.

In the very near future, we will be resuming our live stream Masses. We will be installing new cameras in the Church that will allow us to live stream Masses with greater ease and clarity.

We will be rebooting our parish website. We are currently looking into different website designers. It has been fun looking at other parish websites and seeing their creativity and zeal for evangelization. By the end of August, we should have our new website in place.

Lastly, we have resumed with our plans to renovate the sanctuary. I can sense there is great excitement among the parishioners for the new sanctuary. I am waiting for the diocese to approve the plans and then it will be my great joy to release the plans to the parish. I was hoping that the renovation would be completed by the beginning of Advent. However, due to Covid-19, it seems that early next year would be more realistic.

This past month has been a great consolation and hope with the resuming of public Masses and the sacraments. I know we are all eager to resume things at the parish just as they were before the pandemic. As your pastor, it is my responsibility for the safety of the faithful in the church and parish buildings. The full reopening of the parish will be a slow process, but this is done with great care, attention, and caution. I thank our parish staff and volunteers who have been disinfecting the parish buildings throughout this ordeal.

The Lord has given us many graces during this difficult time. Jesus comforts us through the Cross. He comforts us in being united with Heaven through the Holy Mass. He comforts us in the beauty of His mystery through the sacred art which is adorned in our church. He comforts us by being united in prayer together with Him.

In Jesus and Mary,

Today, many from all faiths and from no faith, see a malevolent force that has gripped our nation and the world that leaves many people feeling helpless and hopeless. They often look only for political solutions to this present darkness. But, at times of significant societal change, where uncivilized and often barbaric behaviors are seen daily on TV news and the internet, a spiritual/religious revival is called for to point the way to a more devout, more free, more kind and meaningful society.

“We are now standing in the face of the greatest historical confrontation humanity has ever experienced. I do not think that the wide circle of the American Society, or the whole wide circle of the Christian Community realize this fully. We are now facing the final confrontation between the Church and the anti-church, between the gospel and the anti-gospel, between Christ and the anti-christ. The confrontation lies within the plans of Divine Providence. It is, therefore, in God’s Plan, and it must be a trial which the church must take up, and face courageously,” said Cardinal Karol Wojtyla (future Pope John Paul II), 1976 in Philadelphia for the bicentennial celebration of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

“Millions of Americans are alarmed over our current cultural and political climate but are afraid to speak out. They feel bullied into accepting a cultural and political outlook sharply different from what they believe,” from Rabbi Aryeh Spero, Push Back, Reclaiming the American Judeo-Christian Spirit.

Archbishop Carlo Vigano, former Apostolic Nuncio, wrote, “In recent months we have been witnessing the formation of two opposing sides that I would call Biblical: the children of light and the children of darkness. The children of light constitute the most conspicuous part of humanity, while the children of darkness represent the absolute minority. And yet, the former are the object of a sort of discrimination which places them in a situation of moral inferiority with respect to their adversaries, who often hold strategic positions in government, in politics, in the economy and in the media. In an apparently inexplicable way, the good are held hostage by the wicked and by those who help them either out of self-interest or fearfulness.”

“However, it is important that the good - who are the majority - wake up from their sluggishness and no not accept being deceived by a minority of dishonest people...It is necessary that the good, the children of light, come together and make their voices heard. What more effective way is there do this...than by prayer, asking the Lord to protect...all of humanity from this enormous attack of the Enemy?”
